

MEENAKSHI ACADEMY OF HIGHER EDUCATION & RESEARCH
FACULTY OF MEDICINE

Mathribhasha Diwas Day Celebration– February 21st 2018

In view of International Mother Language Day, Faculty of Medicine, Meenakshi Academy of Higher Education & Research, has organized a Mathribhasha Diwas Celebration on 21st February, 2018 to promote Mother Tongue and create awareness and cultural traditions among the students.

The programme started with the invocation of Tamil Thai Vazhthu.

The Vice Principal welcomed the gathering

The Dean delivered the inaugural address

PG Director, Prof.Dr.Srinivasan giving the special address

The Vice Principal, Professor & HOD of Physiology, Dr.M.Chandrasekhar, welcomed the gathering. The inaugural address was given by Dr.M.Danapal., MD.,D.M., Dean of Meenakshi Medical College. The Director of PG studies, Dr.R.Srinivasan, M.D., delivered the special address.

The Vice Principal felicitating the Dean and the Director of PG studies

Anatomy Medal Exam Winners Ms.Merlin Lydia, Mr.Ramkishore & Ms.Sanjana were awarded with Medals, Certificates & books during the Celebration

Following this, the events of the day started with the regional songs sung by the students in all the four languages including Tamil, Telugu, Hindi & Malayalam. Then there was oration by the students who spoke on the importance of all the four languages. A postgraduate student in Biochemistry Department, Ms.Sonika gave an oration highlighting the Culture and tradition of Manipuri society.

The students singing the songs in their regional languages

Oration given by the students in all the four languages

Next there was a traditional dress competition among all the four languages. The students wore their traditional dresses and depicted their culture beautifully.

Then a National Integrated Tamil Speech was given by the Assistant Professor of Biochemistry, Dr.Sivakumar where he emphasized that the oldest language among all other languages is Tamil and it's a pride to our country. Following this there was a role play enacted by the students in all the four languages where they made the audience to understand the diversity of cultures and its uses apart from their respective mother tongue.

Traditional Dress Competition by the students

Role Play enacted by the students highlighting the importance of their language

Then there was a Poetry Recitation by the Professor & HOD of biochemistry, Dr.Ursula Sampson. Finally there was a regional dance performance by the students in all the four languages. Prizes, Medals & Certificates were given for best performers among the students in all the events.

Regional Dance performance by the students

National Integrated Tamil speech
by Asst.Prof.Dr.Sivakumar

Vote of thanks proposed by
by Prof.Dr.Neelambikai

The faculties who participated in the programme were felicitated with gifts at the end of the programme.

The Best Performer were awarded medals, certificates & prizes in all the languages

Prof.Dr.Ursula Sampson & Prof.Dr.Muthulakshmi were felicitated for their performance in the programme

The vote of thanks was proposed by Dr.Neelambikai, Professor of Physiology.
The programme ended with the National Anthem.