General Guidelines:

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in W.P ( C ) No. 267 of 2017 ( Dar - US - Slam Educational Trust Case) directed the MCC ( Medical Counseling Committee) of DGHS (Directorate General of Health Services), MoHFW (Ministry of Health & Family Welfare) to conduct counseling of 100% seats of Deemed Universities.

There will be four rounds of counseling i.e. Round 1, Round 2, Mop up Round & Stray Vacancy Round.

All the participating candidates are hereby informed that all important communications issued by the MCC (Medical Counseling Committee) are posted on the official website of MCC i.e. www.mcc.nic.in. The authenticity of communication may be confirmed from the official website of MCC before relying upon any message circulating in Social Media.

Candidates are advised to go through the Information Bulletin and Counseling scheme before registering on MCC website, in order to understand the scheme of counseling.

Guidelines to candidates who get allotment letter issued by MCC:-

1. Parents only should accompany the candidate for the admission process (Only 2 persons along with candidate will be allowed for admission process).
2. The payment can be made only through RTGS/NEFT (Tuition Fees/ Hostel Fees/ Admission Fees/ Miscellaneous Fees) mentioned. Once paid through RTGS/NEFT you are requested to come with all the transaction details on the next day morning. (Verification can be made once we receive the bank statement)
3. The timings for admission process will be from 8.30AM to 4.30PM.
4. The candidates are requested to take photocopy of their original documents before they submit it in the office.
5. The admission process may take a whole day to get completed; hence candidates & parents are requested to make necessary arrangements accordingly.
6. The candidate along with their parents should report to the college during working hours of admission office mentioned above and complete the admission process within the date & timespecified in the counseling schedule of DGHS.

*We expect your cooperation for the smooth completion of admission process.
